The New Yorks were not in it with the Cincinnatis at the Polo grounds resterday and were shut out. It was Ewing's first victory in the last twelve games. The Clevelands got away with the Brooklyns, and the Baltimores captured a pitchers' battle from Chicago. The winning twice from St. Louis, cut Anson's lead down to eleven points, while the Pittsburghs succeeded in breaking Philadelphias winning streak. CINCINNATI, 4; NEW YORK, 0. After dropping eleven straight games, Buck Ewing's Cincinnatis came to town yesterday and covered the New Yorks with whitewash, Little Johnny Foreman, the left hander, pitched great ball, and made monkeys of the local team. Dad Clarke, on the other hand, was nit a bit freely, but only one of the four runs accred by the visitors was earned, the others being charged to an error by Connaughton.

When Umpire Sheridau was ready to call play the bitter feeling between the teams began to crop out. In the right-hand batter's box the earth had been dug out so that the Cincinnatis would have to stand in a hole when facing the pitcher, the New Yorks figuring that their seven left handers would have to stand on the other side, of the plate. This unsportsmanlike seven left handers would have to stand on the other side of the plate. This unsportsmanlike trick acted as a boomerang, for Ewing refused to play, and the time occupied in filling up the ditch made it necessary for the unpire to call the game at the end of the seventh inning. Such petty business is not desired by fair-minded patrons of the game in this city, who want to see the New Yorks win on their merits or not at all.

minded patrons of the game in this city, who want to see the New Yorks win on their merits or not at all.

Capt, Joyce was guilty of a piece of foolishness in the fourth inning that resulted in his being expelled from the game and fined $25, lie kicked on being called out on a third strike when the bail out the plate. Joyce should have used better judgment than to continue to argue when Sheridan threatened to put him out. As it was, the captain's absence undoubtedly took the heart out of the locals.

McPhee began the sixth with a safe fly that Van Haltren ought to have eaten. He took second on a passed ball and reached third on Peits's out. Smith's single brought in the run, and Irwin's base hit put. "Germany" on second. Vaughn hit to Clark, whose throw was squarely muffed by Connaughton, and J. Foreman's out moved the runners up a base. Eddle Burke's hot single to left brought in two more runs, and Hoy flied out. The score was 4 to 0.

A crank who made a disparaging remark about Sheridan was invited to fight it out after the game by the umpire, who seemed to have lost his head.

"I'll fight you for fifty," yelled the crank,

nead.
I'll fight you for fifty," yelled the crank,
ad do you, too." "Til fight you for fifty," yelled the crank, "and do you, too."
"Naw, yer won't," shricked Peitz, who also received an invitation to fight.
When Tiernan opened New York's half with a single there was no end of excitement, and there was more of it when Gleason took four balls. Peitz objected to a strike called on Connaughton and was fined $10. "Conny" then filed to Hoy. Davis forced Gleason, who spixed McPhee, but the latter went on playing. Then Stafford forced Connaughton and New York's sixth blank was recorded. The score:

CLEVELAND, 5: BROOKLYS, 3.

It was pay day at Eastern Park yesterday, but the Brooklyn players celebrated the event by dropping a game to the Clevelands. While Payne was not as effective as in the majority of the sames in which he has occupied the box, still his work was satisfactory, and with proper support he would have held the Spiders down to one run. The visitors' first run was due to an error by Jones, who allowed Childe's hit to roll through his legs. Two errors made by Corcoran were also fatal, as they were responsible for three runs. In the fourth inning, with one out and McGarr on first, Tebeau sent a bounder near second base and a double play was in sight. Corcoran, however, after touching second base threw wild to first. Blake and Young then followed (with singles, With one run scored, two men on the bases, and two out Corcoran again came to grief in the light hunging. He fumbled Med Leiter in the two out Corcoran again came to grief in the ninth inning. He fumbled McAleer's bounder and McKean ran home. Young held the home players down to five hits until the last inning, when Foutr's men made a final raily to pull out the game. Had Payne got to first there is no

TOPGALLANT'S SON SHOWS HIGH FORM AT THE HAV.

herlock Winner of the Race at Heats of Mix Furioags Roundsman Defeata Has-let After a Furious Drive Miss Prim and Kentucky Belle the Victorious Fillies The Eastern talent saw one of the best two-year-olds in training vesterday at Sheepshead Bay, J. C. Cahn's Typhoon II., by Topgallant, out of Dolly Varden, running seven furlongs Golden Rod Stakes from the Keene representa-Burlesque. The race at hests of six furlongs was quite an attraction. It went to the favorite, Sherlock, in straight heats, the three-year-old running in 1:15 1-5, and then repeating in 1:16, to the amazement of a large division of the faithful who looked for Strathrol to wear down his more youthful opponent in the second trial. The weather was again superb, and the track much faster than on Tuesday.

Typhoon II. has a long string of victories to his credit throughout the West, and the smart ones only waited to see him before making him favorite for the Golden Rod. When the handsome colt warmed up on the turf the taient were unanimous in the opinion that he would do in any company. Princess Flavia was second choice and Burlesque the ontsider. The Princess had never started but once, and that was when she gave George Rose a strong argument for the Partridge Stakes. Yesterday she had quite a pull in the weights, but few of the smart division thought her up to beat-ing a colt of Typhoon IL's class. The race is quickly described. Typhoon II. sprang away in the lead. The public can judge of his quality when it is related that under Martin's restraining hand the son of Topgallant covered the first six furlongs in 1:14. From that point to the last hundred yards the jockey was stopping the colt and it was only play for him to run the entire seven furlongs in 1:28. Some persons thought that the victor had nothing left at the end, but this is hardly so, as Martin was only riding him moderately at the wire. Burlesque was a poor third.

Sherlock was favorite for the heat race, with Strathrol a red-hot second choice. Strathrol led in the first heat until well into the stretch, where Sherlock challenged him and finally won by half a length. Martin laid Strathrol up directly it came to a struggle, and the plungers rushed for the layers of odds to hedge on Pat Dunne's five-year-old. Song and Dance badly off at the start, just beat the distance flag the Dunne's five-year-old. Song and Dance, badly off at the start, just beat the distance flag the first time. It was Aurelian which made the play in the second heat, and carried Sherlock on tiptoe to the turn, where he collapsed suddenly. Strathrol apparently had no speed, and old Song and Dance gave chase to Sherlock. The three-year-old won cloverly enough by a length from Song and Dance. Strathrol beat Aurelian, the latter pulling up lame. This gave first money to Sherlock, second to Strathrol, and third to Song and Dance.

It was a poor lot of malden two-year-old fillies which started in the first and second races. Billy Lakeland's Hallyroe was favorite for the first division, but Miss Prim, the second choice, won after a struggle with Confession and the favorite. For the second half the talent selected Myrile L., and once more they were all at sea, the winner turning up in Walter B. Jennings's Kentucky Belle, who beat Yankee Heiress a neck in a hard drive. Numerset, a full sister to that good horse Patron, was third. Hazlet was favorite for the dash at a mile, with Roundsman the moetfancied of the others. Old Sangus sprinted away in front and led until the head of the stretch, where Roundsman moved out, followed by Hazlet. It was hammer and tongs to the wire, with Roundsman the victor by a neck in the fast time of 1:41-5. Baldwin's Ramiro was third, three lengths away, Hill whipped Hazlet savagely after the finishing post had been passed, and for this he was severely reprimanded by the stewards.

Damien and Argentina were the sole starters in the dash at one mile and three-sixteenth. The former was favorite and he gailoped the filly into the ground, winning in hand by three lengths.

That most consistent performer, Ferrier, won the last race of the day, a dash at a mile over the turf course. Sir Francis was the favorite, but he got away in the ruck and had to thread his way through the field. Karma made the running for six furiongs, giving way to Ferrier and Lookout at the head of the stretch. In a hot and furious drive Ferrier outgained Lookout and won by three-quarters of a length. Sir Francis was a good third, and Long Beach, who sulked half way home, finished fourth. Sir Francis carried 135 pounds, and the mile in 1:42.2-5 was a most creditable performance. Summaries follow:

place on Manhattan Field on Sept. 19. The candidates for premier honors are V. A. Demoruelle, E. Dupre, E. J. Miltenberger, and M. Verdella. Young Men's Gymnastic Club, New Orleans, and S. B. Jones reached this city on Sunday, and the others got in yesterday. They have secured quarters at the Knickerbocker A. C. and will train at Columbia Ovad. Demorable is entered for the sprints and low nurdus. He is Southern champion for 100 and 22° yards and is also reputed to be fast over the sticks, He has run 100 yards in 10.15 seconds want to back Mat Halpin or Meyer Cohen against him.

Verdella is the half-mile and one-mile champion of the South. He has covered the shorter distance in 2 minutes decouds and the mile in a trifle worse than 5 minutes. Unless something serious is the matter with New Orleanstracks or timers he is not likely to trouble his Northern rivals im either event. Still, his presence is very acceptable for the variety it lends to the competition, and impartial rooters are hoping that he will get among the means.

E. J. Milienberger is the weight throwing star of the combination. He is fairly expert with the hammer, weight, and shot, and may worry some of the local stars. Jones, the odd man, is a high jumper, capable of clearing 5 feet 2 inches.

The English Setter Zip a Winner. Monnis, Manitoba, Sept. 2. The Derby trials were continued to-day. Ram, followed by a strong wind, prevented good work. The English setter Zip, owned by S. P. Jones, Louisville, improved on every trial and won easily. Secimuroved on every trial and won easily. Second went to Christina, an English setter puppy, owned by Hobart Ames. Northeaston. Third and fourth was divided between the pointers Alabama Girl and Ton Works. The All-age Stakes has twelve starters, and three braces have been tried. Gleams Ruth easily defeated Van Lit. Sister Sue ran with Bonnie Lit. There was little difference, Sue having the advantage in pace and range, while Bonnie Lit did most point work. Small L. ran a disappointing trial with Columbus. The other entries in the All-age Stake yet to run are Thold with Greenway. Domino with Lawrence, and Vongull with Noble Leo.

Waws Wins Among the Thirty-footers, Nawyout, Sept. 2.—James A. Stilliman's Waws won another race of the thirty-footers today. It was for aweepstakes before a strong breeze from the southwest which caused the little skimming craft to fairly fly through the water. The course was from liren-By through the water. The course was from lirenton's Cove to and around the budy off Dyer's Island and return, allogather sixteen miles. It was a run before the wind to tenark and a dead beat back.
The Asahi creased first with the others well tunched, but the run out was so fost and so close that neither loat almed a particular advantage from it. In fact the last boat turned within twenty seconds of the first, which was the Vayuero, the Asahi having failed isack to fourth place. The race was really salled on the beat turne, in which Sittlman showed judgment superior to all his competitors, with the possible exeption of Commodore Morgan, who pulled the Puck up from last position to second. Summars:

Corbett Meets Sharkey's Manager. Jim Cornett shook off the glamour of Asbury Park long enough yesterday to visit the Police Gazette office and have that long-deferred talk with Tom Sharkey's and have that long-deferred talk with Tom Sharkey's manager, D. J. Lynch. A rumor to the effect that Fitzsimmons would be on hand in an aggressive vein attracted a curious crowd, but hold did not materialize, and the two burly policemen on duty had a sinceure. A clause was inserted in the articles for the proposed fight between Corbett and Sharkey, attpulsing that the victor should be crowned champion and receive the championship belt. Nothing transpired as to date or location, but word came from San Francisco that each man's second instalment of the side bet hast been received there on time. After the usual roasting and threatening pyrotechnics, the meeting broke up harmoniously.

W. K. Wheelock, representing Daniel A. Stuart, yesteriay denied the rumors that Stuart was interested in any manner in the purse oferes by New York parties for the context. He further stated that Stuart would make an offer at the proper time, and that he had accured a place where the fight could be puited off successfully.

TORNIE BUILER TAKES THE HON-ORS AT SPRINGFIELD MEET.

Cooper and Baid Show Speed, but Fail to Score-The Amateur Laureis Evenly Di-vided-Michael, the Noted Weish Rider, Arrives - Gideon's Weekly Bulletin. SPHINGPIELD, Mass., Sept. 2.-The usual brand of Springfield weather greeted the racing men to-day, and 15,000 people saw many close and exciting contests. Tommle Butler of Boston, who weighs but 126 pounds and is little more than a schoolboy, carried away the honors of the day, winning the mile international in a game finish from nearly all the leading men of the country, and the half-mile open in just as good a field. In the latter he followed Bald down the stretch and jumped from behind when near the finish. In the mile Baid led into the stretch, with Butler and Cooper close up. Bald worked hard, but Butler, Cooper, and Gardiner passed him and finished in the order named, In the amateur class the honors were evenly divided. The closest finish of the day was that in the mile 2:10 class, professional, run in two-fifths of a second better time than the mile international. Porter of Waltham and Helfert of Utica were inches only apart at the tape. Sanger and Kennedy from scratch had no show for the money in the handleap. The five limit men paced and paced about the two miles, and fluished as the field was rounding the last turn. No records were broken, the pacing of the events being slow and not the best obtainable. The sextuplet made a mile in 1:52 3.5, and the Kings county "quad" team did a half in 55 2-5 Little Michael, the Welshman, arrived in this country to-day, and will be seen at the meet to-morrow in an exhibition ride. He is not able to go officially for records. He will compete to go officially for records. He will compete in the races at Buffalo, Sept. 7, and will also ride at the meet of the Quill Club wheelmen, Sept. 18 and 19, with Parsons, the Australian, and Starbuck of this country. Maddox may compete in the same race. Summaries:

At a late hour to-night Referee Robinson disqualified Tom Cooper in the one-mile international race for showing Eddie Baid. This occurred at the time Newton fell. Newton had the pole. occurred at the time Newton fell. Newton had the pole, Ziegier was outside him, Cooper was next, and Bald was coming strong around the outside of Butler, who was leading. As Baid reached Cooper's side, the Detroit man, it is said, deliberately shoved him, and Bald swerved against Ziegier, who had to crowd Newton. Newton fell and Bald protested. Cooper, it is said, was also fined and ruled out of to-morrow's races.

The Riverside Yacht Club of Riverside, Conn., held some special races on Long Island Sound yesterday for 51, 43, and 36 foot cabin sloops, 25 and 15 foot open sloops, and 25-foot cabin cats. Prizes were also offered in a number of other classes, but they did not fill.

While in the first round the wind shifted all around the compass, it finally went back to its original starting point, south by east, at the commencement of the second round, and as it came in strong, the yachts made a splendid Among the larger boats F. M. Hoyt's pretty Norota not only won in her own class from the Eidolon, by 10 minutes and 35 seconds, but also won an extra prize by going up into the 51-foot class, where she beat the Uvira 3 minutes on corrected time. In the 36-foot class the thirtyfour rater Acushia beat the Vorant over 5 min-utes, while in the 25-foot class the Vaquero beat the Eos 8 minutes 9 seconds. The Eos, however, which is a new one-rater, went up a class, as she had no competitors in her own, and after 914-mile triangle to Shippan Point can buoy, a stakeboat, and then home.

The 25-footers and cabin cats were sent once around the Shippan Centre Island course, a distance of 12% miles, while the half-raters made tance of 13% miles, while the half-raters made one circuit of the Shippan Point course. As the wind was south by east at the etart it was a broad reach on the starboard tack to the first mark, and the yachts crossed the line in the following order:

Lytz, 1.46.07; Eidolon, 1.46.57; Vorant, 1.48.10; Acushia, 1.49.19; Norota, 1.50.00; Ees, 1.50.58; Scal, 1.50.00; Trilby, 2.00.00; Vola, 2.00.00.

The yachts had scarrely got started on their journey when the wind hauled to the east-southeast, and balloon jibs were taken in and smaller ones substituted, as it was now a beat to the first mark, where the leaders were timed as follows:

The Uvira still held her lead, but the Norota, which had passed the Eidolon, was giving her a hard race for first place. The leaders were timed at the second mark as follows: Uvira, 3:19:28; Norota, 3:21:36; Eidolon, 3:24:37; Acushia, 3:28:11; Vorant, 3:31:53. As the yachts approached the second mark the wind went back to about where it attarted from and the yachts had a run home, where they were timed as they completed the first round as follows: Uvira, 3:40:54; Norota, 3:43:37; Eidolon, 3:46:58; Acushia, 3:50:36; Vorant, 3:56:02. On the last round the yachts had a reach, a best, and a run. Summary:

GOLFING IN CANADA.

stewart Gordon Wine the Handlesp-Sweeper's Good Drives. NIAGARA ON THE LAKE, Sept. 2.-The largest

eeting of golf players ever known on Canadian soil is that of the international tournament now being held at historic Niagara on the Lake. Players from all parts of the Dominion, together with many from the Union and a few from Europe, are taking part in the contests. The links were in excellent shape to-day, and Arthur Smith, the Toronto professional, who on Saturday went around the eighteen holes in 81 and 88 said that the links were superior to any in Canada. Among the players taking part is a team from the Chicago Golf Club, including Charles B.

MacDonald, Vernon Shaw Kennedy, Arthur

Strong, George Meecher, and others. Notable among the Eastern cracks is Harry Roy among the Lastern cracks is Harry Roy Sweeney of Albany, who was close up in the United States championships at Shinnecock. Canada will rely upon at Shinnecock. Canada will rely upon such players as T. M. Harley of Kingston, F. Stancliffe of Montreal, W. A. H. Kerr of Toronto, and Charles Hunter of Niagara. Buffaio and Rochester, which are now most enthusiastic clube, thanks largely to Niagara's influence, will be well represented in the handicaps. In the professional match, which will be ulayed on Naturday afternoon, James Foulis of the Chicago Goif Club, who won the open champlonship at Shinnecock, will be opposed by Arthur Smith of the Toronto Club and James Smith of Montreal.

Willie Davis carried for Fred, while Roger Willie Davis carried for Fred, while Roger Willier Davis carried for Fred, while Roger Willier and an amateur, carried for Harry. Tyng and Toler took two ordinary cadd e boys.

The Baitusroi pair played in perfect form for nine holes, while the Havemeyers, playing with their ordinary strength, seemed hardly a match for them. The result was that at nine holes Tyng and Toler were three up. The change came at once, for the leaders, seemingly with an air of assurance of success, lost the next two holes, wen the next, then lost two more, and the match was a tie, with four to play. Then the New Jersey men found themselves in a position in which they little expected to be. They played a very careful game, but all of Toler's long drives were matched by those of Harry Havemeyer, while F. C. Havemeyer was simply invincible on the greens, willie lavis thought his putting phenomenal; the result was that the last took three holes and the match amid great applause from the scores who had foilowed it.

The Havemeyers made the last nine holes in four strokes a hole, which is a remarkable record. It was this very fast golf that beat Tyng and Toler, and it would probably have beaten any amateur pair in the country. There was not much interest in the play this morning. It was much easier for Tyng and Toler with Hetts and Clark than the score indicated, while the Havemeyers had the easiest kind of a thing with Curtis and Murdock.

There are eighteen professionals here for tomorrow's tournament, which will be thirty-six holes medal play. The prizes to-day were silver cups for the winners and silver eigarette cases for the second pair, which was Tyng and Toler. Summary:

YACHTSMAN JOSEPH R. BUSK DEAD. The Former Owner of the Cup Defender

Joseph R. Busk, one of the oldest members of the New York Yacht Club and a prominent yachteman, died yesterday at his summer home, Indian Suring, Newport, R. I., after only a from Bright's disease for over a year. He joined the New York Yacht Club on July 16, 1869, and was the original owner of the sloop Mischief, which defeated the Canadian challenger Ataianta in the races for the America's Cup in 1881. The Mischief was selected to defend the cup after a series of trial races win the Gracie, Pocahontas, and Hildegard, and easily beat the Ataianta in two straight races for the cup down the bay in November, 1881.

Mr. Busk also built the famous Madcap, which used to race the White Cap and Annie, owned by the Livingstons, in the seventies. Mr. Busk afterward raced the Mischief against the Gracie and the Bedouin, and sailed with Gen. Paine on the Puritan when she raced the Generata in 1885, and the following year on the Mayflower when she raced the Galatea. Mr. Busk was abroad when the Vigilant and Valkyrie II. raced, but last year he represented the New York Yacht Club on Valkyrie III. joined the New York Yacht Club on July 15.
